"THE UNEASY THREE"

By Hal E. Roach.

Charley, his wife and her brother, amateur crooks, pose as a musical trio in order to get in a party and steal a famous brooch. By a clever ruse Charley opens the safe, but the brooch is not there. His brother-in-law thinks the baby has swallowed it so he steals the brooch, but he and his wife decide to go "straight". Just then a detective holds them up, but brother-in-law saves the day by hitting him with a blackjack.
